

SHERBORNES WITH PAMBER CHURCHES

Families Minister

We are looking for a Christ-like, gifted and inspiring Minister to lead us as we seek to reach the many families who live in our parish and further our vision to see lives transformed as we connect with people, share God's love and grow in faith in Jesus.

Our parish is to the north of Basingstoke within the Diocese of Winchester and affiliated with the Church of England Evangelical Council.

Key Responsibilities

- Oversee and develop a connect-share-grow pathway for a wide range of families from all parts of our parish.
- Encourage, equip and pray for our current children, young people and families, and everyone involved in ministry with them.
- Take a leading role in co-ordinating and developing church services & events that draw families from the wider community.
- Preach & teach God's Word in different settings.
- Play an active role in the leadership team of the church.

Key Details

- We are looking for someone who has some theological training and ministry experience.
- It is a genuine occupational requirement for this post-holder to be a committed Christian.
- Minimum 20 hours up to 37.5 hours per week (full-time).
- Salary range: £30,000 - £40,000 pro rata depending on qualifications and experience.
- 3-year fixed-term contract. If our resources grow and the role proves successful then we will explore extending this.
